

Diploma in Counselling Skills Level 3

Entry Requirements

No formal entry requirements but learners may find it useful if they already have a Level 2 qualification. You must possess English language skills appropriate for the course. A full initial assessment will be carried out at the start of the course to identify any needs you may have.

Aim

This qualification aims to provide learners with in-depth knowledge of the use of counselling skills in everyday life and work and the approaches that underpin the use of these skills.

Course Content

This qualification is ideal for those seeking to enhance their functional role through the use of counselling skills. Learners will gain an understanding of a range of counselling skills and have the opportunity to examine some of the various schools of thought and theoretical models associated with them.

This qualification does not qualify learners to practice as a counsellor.

To be awarded the Level 3 Diploma in Counselling Skills, learners are required to successfully complete 5 mandatory units:

- Unit 01 Developing counselling skills
- Unit 02 Theoretical approaches in the use of counselling skills
- Unit 03 Working ethically with counselling skills
- Unit 04 Counselling skills and diversity
- Unit 05 Counselling skills and personal development.

Timetable

Typically 2 days a week for around 30 weeks

Start Date

September, January and April (but you may be able to join a class at other times)

Fees

FREE (for eligible learners – contact us for more details)

Assessment

This is a competence-based qualification which is internally assessed through a portfolio of evidence and externally quality assured.
